Camp Rules and Regulations for Weekend Retreats

The camp director, while under the authority of the eldership of the Anchorage Church of Christ, is the final authority on all matters pertaining to policy and rules and their enforcement and compliance. He will be responsible for the safety of all campers and the facilities during the event.

Safety Rules

Safety is a primary concern at Midnight Sun Bible Camp.

- Cabin campfires must be supervised at all times and extinguished properly before abandoning them.
- Hikers, boaters and anyone leaving the main camp area will sign out and back in on the supplied sheet as directed by event director.
- Hiking on roads or trails will be done as a group of two or more adults present. Bear protection is required.
- No one may be pushed or thrown into the lake.
- Every individual will wear a properly fitted and fastened life jacket while participating in any boating activity. No camper is permitted in or on boats except during boating periods.
- No swimming is permitted except during swim periods, at designated docks, and with the "buddy system."
- A minimum of two qualified parents (adults) will be directly present during all children's swimming and boating activities.
- Minors who cannot swim must wear a personal flotation device (PFD) while swimming.
- All children 5 and under must wear a PFD when in or near the water.
- No horseplay such as boat swamping, ramming, or any other dangerous behavior is allowed in or near the water.
- Dress shall be modest at all times.
- The following are specifically not permitted:
 - Shorts and cut-offs above the knee (they must be to the knee)
 - Sleeveless, tank top, midriff, or low neckline shirts
 - Clothing that is skin tight. This includes but is not limited to: leggings, yoga pants, spandex, etc.
 - Clothing with inappropriate words or images
 - Bikini-style swim wear (male or female)
- The camp director is the final judge as to what is permitted and appropriate. Jeans, shorts, cut-offs, dry suits, or wet suits are required for water-skiing.
- Unmarried singles shall not be allowed to share a cabin together without a chaperone.
- Campers must remain either in camp general area or signed out at all times. No wondering off by yourself at any time.

Off Limits for Campers

The shores of property the camp does not own except with express permission of the property owner obtained by the camp director

Not Allowed

Guns, fireworks, tobacco products, alcohol, illegal drugs

- Pranks or playing with fire
- Raiding of cabins, or disturbing the personal property of others Littering of the campgrounds
- Food and drinks, other than water, in the cabins
- Motor boating or any other loud activity on or near the lake before 7:00 a.m. or after 10:00 p.m. This protects the privacy of other property owners.

Bathhouses

Bathhouses are separate male and female facilities during weekend camp events. Make sure you know what side to use. Showers are to be kept short aka “navy” style with for a short duration of 2 minutes of running time or less. Propane is very expensive to heat water with. Hot water heaters are not to be adjusted for temperature at any time. Only warm water is provided. The lake is open during normal camp hours if you don't want to use the bathhouse. The gas generators are to be checked daily for oil level by the designated person. Turn generators off when not in use. Bathhouse generators must be turned off after 10PM and before 7AM. Bathhouses are to be kept clean. If you use the last of something, please restock it. Please do not dispose of anything besides human waste and toilet paper through the toilets. Dispose of any other personal hygiene items in the trash and wrapped as appropriate. Empty all trash before camp on last day or as needed. Hair dryers are not to be used in camp bathhouses, Dome only.

General

Treat camp facilities and equipment with care and use it properly

Put tools back in their proper place (not necessarily where you found them)

Do not use camp power tools unless you are experienced with them and have the director's approval. Do not park in the road ways and block access to the various areas of camp.

Except for certain exterior lights in the summer daylight time, leave the lights on inside the Hilton, Dome and Arts & Craft buildings. Report problems or concerns to the director. Camp is not responsible for the use of sensitive medical equipment such as CPAP or cell phone chargers. Use of such devices is at the user's risk. Users are warned that the power supplied to the camp is not guaranteed to be compatible with your device. Power is also not supplied to all areas of camp including all the cabins except the Winter cabin and the Condos.
