

To all Potential Volunteer Staff,

Thank you for your interest in serving at Midnight Sun Bible Camp (MSBC). Your willingness to work at camp as a Christian volunteer follows the paths of many before us. Many have volunteered their time and demonstrated their love for our young people by serving at MSBC. We have a unique opportunity to have a positive influence on the lives of our youth through our example and the teachings of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Our priority is to ensure that all those who work with our youth in any capacity at camp are properly suited and trained for the task. They must also be able to present themselves as strong Christian examples, as little eyes are always watching and learning through what we say and do.

As in past years, we will continue to require all potential staff to fill out a Staff Registration Packet and complete a new background check. Your Staff Registration Form is due no later than June 16th, 2019. Forms can be submitted via email to msbc@anccoc.org or in person to Bob Hoffman or Jason Gardner.

Background checks will be processed online again this year, so you will need internet access to complete this portion of your staff application. Background checks are required for all staff serving this year, even if you completed a background check last year. Background checks are due no later than June 23rd, 2019. No one will be allowed to serve as a staff member without a background check.

Additionally, we are asking all first-time staff to attend at least one training session (in person or via telephone) scheduled for the week of June 24th – June 27th. This training is being held to clarify camp goals, communicate the expectations of camp leadership, and to better prepare new and returning staff in an effort to continually improve the camp experience for everyone involved. Please see the schedule below for available training dates and times.

Please RSVP to jasongardnerak@yahoo.com for which training you plan to attend. A call-in number will be provided for out-of-town staff to attend remotely.

Training Session #1 - Anchorage Church of Christ: June 23rd from 4-5:30pm

Training Session #2 - Valley Church of Christ: June 24th from 6:30-8:00pm

Training Session #3 - Anchorage Church of Christ: June 25th from 6:30-8:00pm

Training Session #4 - Valley Church of Christ: June 27th from 6:30-8:00pm

REMEMBER

You don't have to know EVERYTHING to be a successful Volunteer Staff Member at MSBC!! Have a heart of service, seek advice from other experienced staff members, have an open mind, and "love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind" (Matthew 22:34), and we will all have a very successful week at MSBC!! We look forward to working with you and welcome any suggestions you may have to help us improve the MSBC program!

2019 Criteria for Staff Serving at MSBC Youth Events

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Volunteer Staff Member at Midnight Sun Bible Camp (MSBC). We all know that working at camp brings special joys to all those that participate in any of the many jobs there, whether it be the Directors, counselors, cooks, craft persons, recreation staff, teachers, or KGWW staff.

We must ensure that all those that work with our youth in any capacity at camp are properly suited for the task. As all parents know, little eyes are watching and learning through what we do and say and how we behave. Please keep this in mind at all times while at camp.

All Staff members must agree to abide by the published rules governing conduct at camp. The Weekly Director has final authority on all matters while camps are in session. He may delegate some authority to the Head Boys/Girls Counselor or others, but the Director has final authority. Questions or concerns regarding decisions made by the Weekly Director can be taken up with the elders at the Anchorage Church of Christ after the week of camp is complete.

Overall:

All staff shall be (baptized) Christians in good standing with a recognized congregation of the Church of Christ, be even-tempered, and have a servant's heart. They must be willing and able to present themselves as strong Christian examples for the benefit of the campers and other staff.

Staff Application Form:

Those interested in serving as staff must submit an application for review by the MSBC deacon and leaders. The applicant will be notified promptly whether their application has been accepted or rejected. The application includes an area where an elder or minister of the applicant's home congregation agrees that the applicant is a Christian in good standing with the church.

Criminal Background Checks:

Criminal background checks are required annually for all staff members. This is an online process that must be completed by June 23rd, 2019.

Training:

Please plan to complete all training requirements by the stated deadlines. Training allows us to operate camp more effectively, communicate expectations, improve moral, improve our effectiveness, and improve safety.

Age:

Head cabin counselors shall be at least 21 years old. Assistant cabin counselors can be younger but must be at least 3 years older than the oldest camper, and must be mature and responsible enough to serve as a counselor.

Children at Camp:

Staff members may serve during the same week that their child is attending camp, however, bringing under-age children is not allowed without the Weekly Director's express permission. Campers will not be assigned to a cabin where their parent is serving as a head or assistant counselor.

Sincerely,
The Anchorage Church of Christ Elders

SecureSearch Guide to Online Reporting (Background Check)

THANK YOU again for your interest in working on our staff!

We must continue to do our due diligence in protecting the children that come to MSBC. In addition to training, background checks will continue to be required for all staff in 2019.

Weekly Directors will recruit and prescreen suitable staff applicants for their event per current MSBC staffing requirements (See "2019 Criteria for Staff Serving at MSBC Youth Events" document).

*Weekly Directors are reminded that there is a cost associated with each background check. Please only submit applicants you believe can (1) Meet the minimum requirements to serve as staff during MSBC youth events, and (2) Pass the background check.

Please click on the link below to begin the background check process.

Here is the link: <https://orders.securesearchfaith.com/app.cfm?id=7CA76CED-AB15-4879-B360-790458DF5F51>

The director will be notified that the applicant has either passed or failed. The results of the background check will be held in strict confidence. Should something be found, you will be contacted by the MSBC Deacon for any additional information or follow up discussion. Obviously, a report listing any sex offenses or recent physical abuse charges or convictions will automatically prevent you from either serving or visiting camp

MSBC will not see all of the personal information you enter (social security numbers, etc), only the final report, with abbreviated personal information that allows us to identify the individual associated with the report. After you enter in your information it will then be processed by SecureSearch, the company we have contracted to perform the actual background check. The results will only be sent to the MSBC Deacon (Bob Hoffman) to complete the application process.

This authorization is needed to comply with the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), 15 U.S.C. §1681-1681y as part of your application. MSBC will not request (nor pay for) searches related to education, employment, credit history, or personal interviews with sources such as your neighbors, friends or associates. We may contact spiritual leaders including the elder(s) or minister/preacher (in the absence of elders) at your local congregation.

As of this writing, there is a cost associated with each background check. If you want to spare the camp this expense, please contact the MSBC Deacon to reimburse the camp.

* Only a basic name and Date of Birth (DOB) search will be performed on applicants 18 and under.
As always, feel free to contact the MSBC Deacon or MSBC Programs Director with any questions you may have and thank you for your time and efforts in completing this process.

*All results and information received from the background check will be kept confidential.

Please feel free to contact the Programs Director or Camp Deacon with any questions, and thank you for your assistance in helping us with this process.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20006.

Para informacion en espanol, visite www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmor o escribe a la Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20006.

You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.

You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if: a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report; you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file; your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud; you are on public assistance; you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.

You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.

Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.

Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.

Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.

You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and information in your credit report. Insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.

You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.

Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:
